

Wiener Hofburg (Imperial Palace)

The Hofburg was the political centre of the monarchy until 1918, and nowadays it has the same function for democratic Austria. The Hofburg is the former imperial residence of the Habsburgs (1339). The huge complex consists of 18 individual wings. The entire area from the MQ (Museumsquartier) to the State Opera originally belonged to the Hofburg.

Today the Presidential Chancellery, the National Library, various offices, the Spanish Riding School and various museums are based in the Hofburg.
